

INTERN/FELLOW AWARDS SUMMARY

Updated July 2012

Award Category	Intern/Fellow Collaborator	Intern/Fellow Innovator	Intern/Fellow Leader
Description	Viewed by others as a solid “team player” who has provided significant, valuable input. Routinely provided active and instrumental support in developing or strengthening programs or projects, and may have volunteered for unpopular tasks critical to the success of a program or project	Created a novel program, idea or solution that supported or improved the efficiency, effectiveness, and operation of the internship/fellowship program or the IC/Office in which they worked/rotated	Demonstrated the skills and passion for leadership through a clear and motivating vision, strong communication skills, and the capacity for influencing others in a respectful and effective way to better the organization
Criteria 1	Team Player	Creativity	Building Coalitions
Criteria 2	Communication	Problem-Solving	Communication
Criteria 3	Supporter	Continuous Improvement	Visionary
of Awards Presented	0-2	0-2	0-2
Eligibility	Graduating Interns/Fellows	Graduating Interns/Fellows	Graduating Interns/Fellows
Nominator (Exclusions)	Any NIH or other Federal employee who has worked directly with the graduating interns/fellows and has direct knowledge of their achievements. (Interns/fellows may not nominate themselves)	Any NIH or other Federal employee who has worked directly with the graduating interns/fellows and has direct knowledge of their achievements. (Interns/fellows may not nominate themselves)	Any NIH or other Federal employee who has worked directly with the graduating interns/fellows and has direct knowledge of their achievements. (Interns/fellows may not nominate themselves)